

Digital Dialects

Russell Stannard, one of my favorite tech trainers, introduced a website that helps teach other languages to both children and adults. The languages are taught through online games and are both text based and audio based. The best thing about this tool is that there are many different languages that you can learn here. I have been using it a little bit to learn more Spanish.

Have fun with it and make sure you share this with your students.

www.Digitaldialects.com

Russell's Video on digital dialects <https://youtu.be/Km7jq87iWg4>

